Appomattox Seventh-day Adventist Church

W. Y. Young, Laymen, Speaker for the 1 o'clock Service
Sabbath October 3. Subject: "Signs of Christ's Coming". Scripture — St Luke 21:26 'Men's hearts failing them for fear, and looking after those things which are coming on the earth:for the powers of heaven shall be shaken." Verses 27 ,2 8"And they shall see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory, And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh." Matt 24:3-14. Antecedent calamities. Signs of Christ's Coming. The wisdom of watching, and being prepared to meet Him.

Sabbath October 10, will be Visitor's Day in all of our churches, and we the members of the Appomattox Adventist Church invite you to honor us with your presence on our Visitor's Day and receive a warm welcome as Elder Adlai Albert Esteb has so beautifully written in word and rhyme

Welcome, welcome, friendly neighbor.
To this hollowed place of prayer.
Now forget life's languid labor
As the love of God we share.
While we study here together.
May your heart and mind be stirred

And regardless of the weather
Find the treasures of God's word

Mrs. Lee Wins Canning Awards

Mrs. Tilden Lee won 29 ribbons for canned fruits, vegetables, pickles, marmelade, meats and a doll dressed as a "Modern Bride" at the Five-County Fair last month.

Her first place, blue ribbons included those for strawberry jelly, peach marmelade, blackberry preserves, plum preserves, plums, raspberries, beets, blackeye peas, string beans, sweet peppers, sweet potatoes, whole tomatoes, canned chicken, best 10 jars of vegetables which brought a prize of $10.00, plus Best Dressed doll, a "modern bride." The best 10 jars of canned vegetables was the top special award in canning.Mrs. Lee won this award last year, also.

She won red ribbons for peach jelly, apple jelly, plum jelly, cherry preserves, applesauce, nectarines, lima beans, corn, peas, stewed tomatoes, tenderloin, sliced cucumber pickle, tomato catsup, and peach butter.

County Home For Alcoholics Being Relocated

Elim home for alcoholic and hopeless men is being relocated from its original building in Appomattox County to a larger structure, now being built, in Amherst County.

The Rev. Jerry Falwell, the Lynchburg minister who established Elim five years ago, said the new building should be ready in about six weeks.

The new home, located on Rt. 670 off Wright's Shop Road, will be able to accommodate 25 men —about twice the number being cared for at the present location in Appomattox County.

The Elim home in Appomattox County has been sold to the New Testament Missionary Union for $16,509, Falwell said. The missionary union will use it as a missionary training center and hold special training conferences there in the summer.

Elim is a non-denominational institution and men from virtually all religious faiths have been residents. They have come from all walks of life.

Once they become residents of the home, the men pitch in to help maintain the property, grow gardens and do a myriad of other things, including cooking.

PRAYER SERVICES are held each day as are Bible study periods and on Sun the men at churches for

Since Elim was 1959 approximat been helped homes and job zens with a outlook of life.

Thirty-Five Students Enroll In De-let Program At AHS

Thirty-five students are enrolled in the DE-ICT program at Appomattox High School under the direction of Jimmy McLean. For these young people the Distributive Education and Industrial Cooperative Training programs mean a chance to learn AND earn. And for employers throughout the area these workers perform a variety of useful tasks, and at the same time gain worthwhile skills and training that will make them valuable full-time employees at a later date.

Alice Moore and Wanda Wells are employed by the Appomattox Garment Co. Carolyn Gaines by Gaines Jewelry. Linda Howard, by Parkway Restaurant. Dale Doss, Town Manager's Office. Dale Drinkard, Farmer's National Bank. Sandra Martin, by Sherer B. Robertson, Photo shop. Jeannette Williams and Joanne Ferguson have tentative plans for employment in the near future.

Most of the students take regular high school classes each morning, then depart for afternoon employment. Ashly Wright works at a Sunoco Service Station; Ray Lewis, at the TIMES-VIRGINIAN. Marshall Cordell, Maude's Restaurant. Joe Mayberry, Carroll Vandergrift and Paul Martin, Moses Motor Company. James Farrar, Kerns Bakery. Eugene Paulette, Grinels Motor Company.

Carolyn Hall is employed by Redding's Insurance Co. Jimmy Morris, Harvey's Market. Freddie Godsey, Poe's Hardware. Charles Blackwell, Appomattox Hardware. Frieda Shelton, Parkway Restaurant. Kenneth Elliot, Best Furniture. Gary Blanke, A & P Food Market. Billy Guthrie, West End Market. Peggy Garrett, Tastee Freeze. Dennis Baldwin, West End Market.
